Job Card #5 Guided Practice

Writing Paragraphs

1. Have your child pick a subject. It can be a person, a place, a favorite food, a favorite animal or pet, or some other thing.

2. Now have your child list ideas about the subject. For example: what does it look like?, how does it sound or smell?, what does it do? These can be written in a web format, or as notes.

3. Have your child write the topic or beginning sentence.

4. Now have him or her tell about the subject. (1 to 3 sentences.)

5. End with an interesting idea.

6. When the paragraph has been completed, have your child read it back to you.

7. The two of you can check the sentences for punctuation, capital letters and spelling.

This activity can be done as many times as it takes for your child to feel comfortable writing a simple paragraph.

Celebrate your success!!
A. Read the following sentences.

Underline the letters that should have capital letters.

Rewrite the sentences in the correct form.

Put in the proper punctuation marks at the end of the sentences.

Examples:

Did Jane go to Nanaimo with you?

Look at Roy’s wonderful picture!

Do the first two sentences with your home instructor. Complete the last six on your own.

1. Monday is the first day of the week

2. I like an early lunch
3. this is lovely

4. do you like school

5. jane, watch out for that ball

November 26 2002

Dear Susan

Thank you for your last letter. It is good to hear you are enjoying school.

Yesterday I went skiing hiking and swimming! It was a lot of fun. On February 23 2003 I will be flying to Banff Alberta to do some more skiing. Jenny will be coming with me on this trip. We will rent a car and drive back so we can stop to ski in Vernon Kelowna and Penticton. We should be back by March 15 2003.

I hope you will be able to do some skiing this winter. It is good exercise!

Love
